

2. Financial Impact of the Great East Japan Earthquake in FY2010

- 19.1 billion yen in expenses for the disposal and removal of affected equipment, emergency restoration, provision of human resources and material support, and other efforts was recorded as a special loss. Including the 2.2 billion yen in waived base charges for customers affected by the disaster, the total financial impact from the Great East Japan Earthquake in FY2010 was 21.3 billion yen.

■ Loss from disposal of damaged equipment	Disposal losses and removal expenses for mechanical facilities (office devices, power devices, etc.), circuit equipment (cables, telephone poles, etc.), infrastructure facilities (pipes, manholes, etc.), and buildings damaged by tsunamis, or otherwise.	8.2 billion yen
■ Expenses for removal of damaged equipment		0.8 billion yen
■ Emergency and original condition restoration	Expenses for replacement of telephone poles, replacement or tightening of cables, and other emergency restoration; expenses for restoration of buildings to their original condition.	5.2 billion yen
■ Expenses for human resources and material support	Expenses for goods supplied, transportation, dispatch of support personnel, building inspection and restoration planning services, disaster relief contributions, loss for destruction of goods, etc.	4.7 billion yen
FY2010 Special Losses		19.1 billion yen
■ Waived base charges for affected customers		2.2 billion yen
Total Financial Impact		21.3 billion yen